Read Across America!

From buddy reading to dressing as their favorite book characters to a fascinating visit from author Kitson Jazyuka, our students loved this year's Read Across America activities! The event celebrates reading and is held annually during the week of the birthday of children's author Dr. Seuss.

Did you attend SRNS?

Send us your photos and memorabilia,
and join in on the party!

We're marking our golden anniversary, and a huge part of our 50th celebration is YOU. We're collecting photos, memorabilia, and stories about SRNS from graduates, parents of grads, teachers, staff, and friends. Find our anniversary webpage on the preschool website at www.srnsmid.org, where you can share your memories, view the photo gallery, and more. We're looking forward to seeing everyone's submissions and walking down Memory Lane with you! In the meantime, save the date—Saturday, June 1—for the party!
